PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Hospitality marketing and content professional with 15 years' experience across luxury hotels, restaurants and F&B brands in the UK, Portugal and international markets. As Co-Founder of HOSPO Creative, I lead photography, videography, content production and business development for hospitality clients. My work combines visual production with practical knowledge of how hotels and restaurants operate, sell and communicate guest experience. I create photography, short-form video and social-first content from creative concept and shoot planning through on-location production, editing, colour grading and delivery.
